LABOR INITIATION EXTORTIONS

Organized Labor Parasites Mulct Workers

$20 for Pick and Shovel Job

"A woman called and wants to know what she can do to get a job for her son with one of the contractors who are working for the government," said Mrs. de Aryan to me when I came home. "She says the contractor wants to put as many men to work as he can get hold of, but the labor union won't let him do it unless each worker pays a $20 intiation fee. She does not have the money, they are poor people and they need the job very badly, they cannot afford to feed the boy while there is work he could do."

So I advised them to get hold of the labor agent and dicker with him about a down payment. He said the rule was $10 down and $1 daily for the other $10.

"But she does not have the $10," said Mrs. de Aryan. "Can you lend it to her, I know the boy would pay you back." I did not have it either to spare. So I told Mrs. de Aryan to rob the children's bank. Each of our two boys has paper routes and they keep their money where we can get at it.

Even that was not enough, so Mrs. de Aryan took some of her housekeeping money and I added $2. With this down payment of $10 to the labor racketeers the boy got his job immediately. And that is the "liberty and democracy" we are preparing to "defend" against the "tyranny" of the Nazis.

Who in his good senses wants to shed his blood to uphold this kind of dictatorship by the racketeers with the sanction of the federal government. The difference between our federal government (which protects labor racketeering through the Wagner Act) and British-German dictatorship (for both countries have no liberty) is the difference between tweedledee and tweedledum.

Citizen's Rights and Duties In Making Arrests

What California Penal Code Says

The theory of government in the U. S. A. and California in particular is that the citizen is sovereign and delegates certain powers to officers of the pace for the sake of convenience but never relinquishes the original use of those powers himself. Every citizen is a peace officer at all times with full authority to make arrests, call upon other citizens to help him hold the arrested parties with as much force as is necessary and any person aiding in the escape of the so arrested party is subject to punishment for the same class of offense as the arrested person, if found guilty.

When I was attacked by a labor goon while picketing the pickets in front of the San Diego Hotel and placed the man under arrest, the taxi driver who rescued him from arrest after I warned him of legal consequences, received a sentence of 45 days in jail for so doing. The courts recognize civilian arrests. Judge Clarance E. Terry warned the taxi driver that had my prisoner been held for a felony the taxi man would also be liable to imprisonment in the state penitentiary for aiding in his escape.

California Penal Code

Sec. 101. Punishment for Rescue or Attempt.—Every person who rescues, or aids another person in rescuing or attempting to rescue, any prisoner from any prison, or from any officer or person having him in lawful custody is punishable as follows:—

4. If such prisoner was in custody otherwise than upon charge or conviction of felony: by fine not exceeding five hundred dollars and imprisonment in the county jail not exceeding six months.

Sec. 834. Who may make arrrests.—An arrest is taking a person into custody, in a case and in the manner authorized by law. An arrest may be made by a peace officer or by a private person.

Sec. 837. Arrest by Private Person.—A private person may arrest another:

1. For a public offense commited in his presence.

2. When the person arrested has committed a felony, although not in his presence.

3. When a felony has been in fact committed, and he has reasonable cause for believing the person arrested to have commited it.

Sec. 839. Summoning Assistance.—Any person making an arrest may orally summon as many persons as he deems necessary to aid him therein.

847. Duty of Private Person to Take Arrested Person Before Magistrate.—A private person who has arrested another for the commission of a public offense must, without unnecessary delay, take the person arrested before a magistrate, or deliver him to a peace officer.

And Sec. 849 adds that: a complaint stating the charge against the person, must be laid before such magistrate.

More Jewish Cruelty to Animals

In previous issues we showed how Jews practice cruelty to animals as a religious rite when their rabbis slaughter the animals and let them bleed to death by cutting the throat wide open from ear to ear without first stunning the animal to put it out of its misery. This criminal tendency to sadism is not confined to religoius practice but is at home also in the socalled "science of medicine". Modern medicine came to us through the semitic Arabs and the semitic Jews. Both of them practice cruelty to animals as a religious rite and both of them expanded that practice of the "medicine" man from the religious field to the "scientific" field of "health". The animal is bled to death as a "health" measure for those who devour his carcass. The living animal also is tortured to death in the vivi-section chamber to disclose the "secret" of health to the inquisitors. This notion that disease and sin can be transferred to a scape goat to relieve the sinner of responsibility is another Jewish religious practice.

But it took William Randolph Hearst and Collier's magazine to point out the fact in public print that Hollywood's tower of Babel is using cruelty to animals in another manner to make a profit. We have already previously shown that Kosher slaughter of animals, without stunning, is a profitable racket for the Jewish Rabbis who charge a specified fee for it which is added to the cost of meat. We have shown time and again that all vivisectional practices and serum production is done for the shekels involved in the sale of those poisons to the suckers. And now Hearst and Collier's are exposing the fact that the Jewish moving picture industry, which according to Eddie Canter's boast, "is one hundred percent Jewish if any industry can be called Jewish",—is corrupting the officials of the S. P. C. A. for the sake of profit.

But Collier's tells us something which has always been known, namely hat only degenerate and unmentionable people do such things. And that is the reason why these degenerates were taken into Babylonian captivity and have been chased out of every country in the world where they abused the hospitality of their hosts.

Collier's editorial for Dec. 14, speaks for itself:

Cruelty for Profit

We hereby endorse William Randolph Hearst's crusade, in his daily newspaper column, against cruelty to animals, especially horses, in making of various motion pictures, especially Westerns.

Mr. Hearst charges: That cruelty to horses is on the increase on assorted movie lots and that the movie industry knows it, and so does California's state government, and so does California's Society for the Prevention of Cruelty to Animals; that the state leaves enforcement of its anticruelty laws to the S. P. C. A.; that S. P. C. A. agents are often given the run-around at studios making pictures in which animals are used; that in some cases S. P. C. A. agents have been bribed to look the other way as horses were forced over cliffs, or driven into deep water with property stagecoaches dragging behind them, or tumbled hog-tied down steep hills.

The S. P. C. A.'s job is a hard one, Mr. Hearst admits, with the state of California refusing funds to help protect the animals, but he adds:

> Nevertheless, the S. P. C. A. could accomplish more if it thought more of performing its duties than it does about its private subscriptions.

There is streak of degeneracy in anybody who will abuse any poor, dumb animal in any manner. There is a streak of the unprintable in anybody who will abuse an animal for profit.

If California and its S. P. C. A. won't or can't stop this stuff, the moviegoing public can. A nationwide boycott movement against films commercializing cruelty to animals could be swiftly organized; it would choke this barbarism to death in about one month flat.

Children vs. Pigs

One of the war's effects in Canada is a tax system more considerate of pigs than of children. The Canadian Wheat Board rcently added 15c a bushel wheat tax to the 8% Sales tax. These taxes apply to wheat used for human food. Wheat prepared for pig feed is not subject to these taxes. That system of raising revenue should make the pigs' patriotism and loyalty to the Union Jack rise to the limit of pig appreciation and enthusiasm.—Geo. Cartwright.

The British Lion Roars—

Advice from a big shot: "First, do not deal in shams. Second, if it is known that you do not mean to fight, and will do nothing which forces the other side to attack you, it is better not to take a leading part in fierce quarrels. Leadership cannot exist on the principle of limited liability. Let us hope that these lessons will be digested not only by the British people but by all other nations."

Who said that? Winston Churchill. The quotation is from his book "Step by Step."

Is it discourteous to call Churchill's attention to Norway, Dunquerque, Berbera, and Dakar?

GOD IS LOVE

Low and high and far and near
Love pervades the atmosphere,
Makes not only flowers grow
But lets us undoubting know
That attraction rules divine.

Not a single step is made
Without Love's unfaltering aid.
Every prompting of the mind
Has the love impulse behind
Leading us to harmony.

Now in future, as in past
Our decision will be cast
By the omnipotent rule
That we are Love's faithful tool
Or God incarnate on earth.

In Peace or War: GOD Rules Supreme

What is the most important thing to bear in mind in these days of strife and warfare? When whole nations are wondering what is best for them to do, where will they get the answer? When you are up against it and must chose for yourself where your duty lies, how will you get the right solution?

Whoever is honestly interested to do right and do his duty promptly now, when time is so valuable and quick action imperative, will do well to bear in mind morning, noon and night, that in times of peace and in times of war, the ONE who rules supreme is GOD. The unchanging standard between right and wrong, the eternal LAW which no man and no group of men, be they a dozen or a million, or a hundred millions, can change but which will either create heaven on earth when complied with or a living hell of shrieking demons and shrieking airbombs, when violated with premeditated action, this eternal LAW is the WILL of GOD and rules supreme inspite of the dictates of men in high positions or the demands and the actions of masses of ignorant peoples, mobs or congregations.

And so tonight I intend to illustrate this truth and this fact, namely that in peace and in war God still rules supreme. That assures us hope and gives us power to do the right because in the Will of God the right must prevail and while the mills of the Gods grind slowly they grind exceedingly small.

When I became of age and looked around in the world for a place to settle down I went from one country to another all over the old world, finally wound up in British East India, because I am a religious man and expected to find my own kind among them. But nowhere in Europe, Africa or Asia, could I find a people or a government which respected the divine birthright of each individual to worship God according to his own conscience, in practice. Yes, they say that one has liberty of worship, but what they mean is as long as you don't intend to put it into daily practice. From the moment a person begins to honestly live up to his religion in daily life, in any of the old countries, he finds that the government vetoes his actions. All the governments of the old world are based in feudalism, in class legislation, in special privileges and any person who dares exercise his talents to practice the Golden Rule winds up in prison because he goes smack up against the burocracy which regulates his life for him, does his thinking, dictates his conduct and leaves him no opportunity for creative action. That is the reason why finally I left India and took a boat for the United States.

Eire Won't Fight for England

One of the most astounding phenomena of this war is the specacle of the Irish Republic right in the midst of the theatre of war with bombings on land and sea all around it, standing out as a neutral and refusing to help England, refusing to cede its ports to the British navy. And another phenomenal specacle is the impassionate plea of our former ambassador to England, Joe Kennedy, to stay out of war. To this plea the voice of William Cardinal O'Connell was added in Boston on the eve of his 81st birthday as reported by the Associated Press which I quote: "Not only should we keep out of war as the best thing for America and Americans, but we might well be turning our thoughts toward a speedy and permanent peace among the nations. Notwithstanding the too-prevalent propaganda from all sides, the hope and prayer of the American people today is that we shall be spared the horrors of war. They have taken for granted that the authorities at Washington meant what they said and said what they meant when they promised to keep us out of war. It's hard for me to understand why some of these propagandists are al-

FDR PLAYS 'GOD ALMIGHTY'

Usurps Pope's Position in Deciding Religious Questions

An executive order signed by President Roosevelt assumes to tell "conscientious objectors opposed to participation in war in any form" what their consciences are to follow as their rule. While the constitution of the U.S.A. guarantees freedom of religious worship, and that is freedom to follow the dictates of one's conscience in matters of religious scruples, the President presumes to play Almighty God and tell the objectors what to object to. He lists their scruples for them and says they should not have any others. It used to be that the holy Father at the Vatican city held secret confabs with God Almighty and the cardinals of his court and then laid down the law to his dupes what their religious consciences were to follow or abstain from. But of course this is the New Deal and Roosevelt is now its prophet who holds secret sessions with the Lord and then comes down from Mt. Sinai with the tablets, which he himself always breaks and does as he damn pleases.

'Objectors' Freed of Arms Training

WASHINGTON — Conscientions objectors drafted under the selective service act shall be liable to training "in all military subjects except marksmanship, combat firing, target practices, and those subjects relating to the employment of weapons."

An executive order from the White House gave that explanation of " non-combatant training" which may, under the act, be required of persons "conscientiously opposed to participation in war in any form."

The order, signed by President Roosevelt, also declared the following military service was non-combatant service:

"Service in any unit which is unarmed at all times.

"Service in the medical department wherever performed.

"Service in any unit or installation the primary function of which does not require the use of arms in combat, provided the individual's assignment within such unit or installation does not require him to be trained in their use."

THE CANCER IN DEMOCRACY

It is really sickening to see many of those who shout loudest about perpetuating democracy, turn right around and, by their acts, promote a dictator type of government which would eventually end democracy right here at home.

There is no better illustration of the beginning of a dictator type of government than our present Federal power policy, the effect of which is to destroy private enterprise in the power field and make the Federal government supreme.

Take a few of the news items on one page of a daily newspaper, in August. A candidate for governor points to the menace of "dictator governments;" demands that we meet the enemy within, and then expresses his pride in the Federal government's great power socialization projects in the West.

In an adjoining column is the report that the Reconstruction Finance Corporation has been prevailed upon by the proponents of power socialization, to consider loaning money to public utility districts in the Pacific Northwest to acquire facilities of local private utilities. In other words, the intention is to use a powerful government financing agency to see that a powerful government power agency gets its electricity used in local districts that have failed or refused to finance themselves.

Public officials who promote this policy are, by their very acts, promoting a system of national and state socialization of one of our basic industries; they are destroying tax-paying private enterprise so sorely needed to provide our defense revenues, with tax-exempt, tax subsidized and tax-built Federal power plants and distribution lines. They are actually destroying the democracy about which they talk.

This is an intolerable position to maintain. Instead of destroying private tax-paying industries and discouraging private citizens, this nation should be doing everything in its power to encourage them and to assure them that a dictator policy in our own government will not threaten the savings or the opportunities of private citizens.

In the same newspaper where the foregoing irreconcilable incidents are reported in the daily news, Wendell Willkie said: "Every cancer that has a tendency to destroy its strength" must be cut out of democracy. It's high time for the people of this nation to turn thumbs down on trends which can only lead to some form of dictatorship as surely as similar trends destroyed the rights and liberties of the people of all but a small fraction of the old world. The piecemeal process of destruction is part of the technique of dictatorship.

HITLER'S SPEECH

Golden Calf Democracy Unmasked

If you take the local mouthpiece of the William Allen White committee, as represented in this S. D. Union editorial of Tuesday after Hitler's speech, for your guide you will imagine that Hitler announced the conquest of the word by the German army. Here is the first paragraph of that editorial:

Hitler—World Enemy

ADOLPH HITLER sounded the death knell to his power yesterday when he told a group of munitions workers that "we will defeat the entire world". Countless tyrants have had the same ambition; many of them have set out to fulfill it; none of them has succeeded. History has a way of repeating itself, and the statement of Hitler, doubtless voiced to buoy up the spirits of a nation struggling under the iron heel of a ruthless dictator, may therefore be taken as the forerunner of his destruction. It may not be tomorrow, or next month, or even next year. But no man ever has lived who can rule the world and there is nothing in Hitler's makeup to indicate that he is the exception.

What Hitler Said:

Then if you turn to the news page of the same edition of the S. D. Union you discover that Hitler said something entirely different from what the Pro-British, German-hate spreading S. D. Union interpreted in its editorial misrepresentation. When one reads the whole speech carefully one discovers that Hitler paints a realistic picture of a world ruled by the "chosen people", who constitute one community that directs all the gold ruled countries for the profit of that international "family" of the chosen few at the expense of the many who toil but are not free in the "democracies" of the world.

When one searches for the phrase "we will defeat the entire world" one discovers that it is said as a truism and not as a threat to the peace of the word, but rather that human rights always win over property rights where property is used to enslave the workers, because in the end the capacity for WORK is the real power that produces wealth, not the title to gold. Hitler uses the German people as an example to demonstrate the workings of that truism even though the rest of the yet Jew-dominated world, including these U.S.A., are attempting to impose the Jew-gold rule upon Germany by force. Here is the text itself:

Haves (democracies) vs. (Have-nots) Germany

They had so-called democracy in the Anglo-French world. In reality capitalism reigns supreme, that is, there's a band of several hundred people who possess unmeasurable fortunes and who, because of the peculiar construction of the state, are more or less completely independent and free.

It is said this means rule by the people. But when you look closer, the people as such have not an opinion—it is placed before them. Now, who places this viewpoint before them? Why, it is capitalism!

The slogan of liberty really means freedom of economy, namely for everybody to grab for himself without state control. Capital first makes the newspapers subservient. The lord of the so-called free press is the man who supplies the capital, the press moulds public opinion, the papers appear according to political parties, but in reality there is no difference between them.

There's no real opposition—the opposition really holds the same view. These differ as little from each other as they used to differ with us in former times. You remember no doubt those old parties. It was the same thing.

Divided in Families

Usually they are divided up into families. One is conservative, the other is liberal and in a third case, in England, one belongs to the labor party. In reality, all three sit together as members of the same family and agree exactly on their future attitude. Added to this is the fact that the world's chosen people actually constitute one community and that they move and direct all these organizations.

Now one might suppose that in lands of freedom and democracy everybody lived in plenty. The contrary is true. Nowhere is the standard of the masses lower.

Rich England

That's your rich England: 40,000,000 square kilometers controlled by it. In return, for instance, 100,000,000 colonial workers must work in India under a miserable standard of living.

One might think that in England itself at least every individual must share these riches. On the contrary, in these countries differences between classes are the crassiest imaginable. Poverty on one hand that baffles description, wealth on the other hand that equally baffles description. England for decades has had two and a half million unemployed.

Cites U. S. Unemployed

Rich America has 12 to 13 million unemployed annually . . . . .

Will Defeat World

Should we go to pieces, I asked myself, because we have no gold?

Our capacity for work is our gold, our capital, and with it we will defeat the entire world.

I built up my entire economy on the conception of work. Those who have gold have failed completely. You can't get anybody to take British pounds, even if you throw them after them. Our German mark without gold is worth more than gold.

Our mark, although at first there was no gold whatever, remained stable. Why? My compatriots, because you stood behind us.

Jews Never Learn in History

One can plainly see that it never dawned on those degenerates of Hollywood that something was wrong with the way they tripped horses, broke their legs & killed them. The cannibal negro blood in the Jews, just as it still works in the Moorish Spaniard with his bull fights when he cuts the vocal chords of the horse to be torn open by the sharp horns of the bull in the arena, this degenerate inheritance perverts the trend of thought and Hollywood's moguls never realized their own degeneracy till Collier's made it plain. Just so all through history the Jews have been exploiting the dumb and trusting Gentiles. They rule the world through the rule of feudalistic title to land and gold. They are in cahoots with the royal racketeers of England, the politicians in every nation where rackets decide the voting balance and they raise private armies to kill those who dare expose them. Abe Lincoln was murdered promptly when he introduced the method of issuing non-interest bearing treasury bonds.

Wilson was Baruch's Yes-Man; And this Jew Ruled the U. S. A.

WASHINGTON, — Nearly everyone around the commission believes the President should take some step soon to give the group absolute authority to make decisions, instead of functioning as it now does in a purely advisory way.

If the President does not want to appoint a chairman or a coordinator, the prevailing opinion seems to be that he should select a board to give defense decisions the necessary impetus. It is recalled that when Woodrow Wilson asked Bernard Baruch to take charge of resources in the last war, Baruch agreed on one condition: "When I say yes, you say yes, and when I say no, you say no."—Paul Mallon.

Murdering Gentiles for Profit

Collier's Magazine of Dec. 14, xpresses the editor's feelings about Hollywood Jews who "run the moving picture industry 100%" according to Eddie Cantor's recent public boast, where these Jews employ cruelty to animals as a means of making money. Collier's says that there must be a streak of degeneracy in these peoples as well as a streak of the unprintable.

Of course, Collier's dares not name the degenerate Jews of the Tower of Babel by the proper name because that would constitute "anti-semitism" and the Jews in Hollywood are raising a private army of their own which they are training in more rigorous fashion than any Bund ever dared do in this nation. And in New York the Jews have organized another private army. They had such armies in Russia, Hungary and Spain when they massacred millions of Russian, Hungarian and Spanish Gentiles who opposed Jew domination.

But while the truth about this streak of degeneracy is given publicity by Collier's it never was a secret. This degeneracy and unprintable perversion of normal processes of thought is the impulse that guided the Rothschilds for over 150 years in their recruiting of Gentile mercenaries to war upon other Gentiles for the profit of the Jewish International Bankers. This very streak is at the bottom of today's warfare in the world. It's a Jewish war for the profit of the Jews and that is why the ruling Jews in England and the U.S.A. won't permit the lifting of the blockade to feed starving millions of Gentiles in Europe.

Yes, it is unprintable in its degeneracy, but somebody has to print it and let the people see. How fast the Jews changed their tune in Hollywood when Collier's called them by their proper name!

Outlaw Use Of Trip Wire in Westerns

HOLLYWOOD,—The running-W, a wire device which trips movie horses for thrill scenes, has been officially outlawed by the movies, although it has not been widely used for years.

Richard C. Craven, western director for the American Humane association, reported the movie producers, through the Hays office, recently adopted a resolution abolishing use of the running-W, or any similiar mechanical tripper, as a result of the campaign to eliminate animal cruelty in movies.

Admits at Least Two Animals Killed

The running-W is an airplane wire, invisible to the camera, several hundred feet long. It has a "Y" at one end which is attached to the horse's front feet while the other is fastened to a stake.

It is apparent what happens when the horse runs the length of the wire. The last fatality report he had was last April, said Craven, when two horses were killed when tripped by a "W".

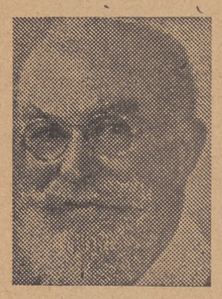
HEALTH-GERMS

By George Starr White, M. D.

AUTO-EXHAUST-GAS MAKES CHILDREN ILL

Many children are being made sick from inhaling carbon-monoxide gas from automobile exhausts. Next to tobacco-smoke, auto-exhaust is the worst enemy of the respiratory system that we, in the cities, have to deal with .



Dr. Geo. Starr White

No child should sit in an active garage while the car is being looked over, or "tuned up". As much as possible, keep out of automobile "jams"; for the poison gas impregnates the air in such jams.

Babies and young children are susceptible to "CO" gas. Many babies are killed by automobile exhaust-gas, when they are supposed to have died from other causes. Many children lose their appetites from inhaling this gas.

Many puny, sickly babies can be restored to health by keeping them out of automobiles and the consequent exhaust when in a packed street. I am seeing more and more patients with respiratory troubles that I feel sure are caused by auto-exhaust-gas-filled air.

All should strive to be in fresh air—not polluted with smoke or gas of any kind. For children and all those suffering with troubles of the respiratory tract, this is especially important. We do not have to go to the "war zones" to be made sick by "poison gas".

"WHERE YOUR $$$ HAVE MORE CENTS"

Yiddische Nachrichten

By Chas. B. Hudson

OMAHA, Nebr.,—No matter what motives and intentions of our "enemy" to use Wendell Willkie, fact is that he, by going on radio after election, gave even those whom he pre-electionally daubed "traitors", added protection. No doubt it was ex-editor of FORTUNE, Russell W. Davenport (wife Jewess), who helped write speeches that antagonized real Americans. Informed Willkie supporters wondered why he tolerated Davenport on his staff in such a "key" position. We hope it was the "control's" stooge Davenport speaking when Willkie accused every "anti-Semite" of being a "traitor." Now, Willkie's post-election claim that it is good "Americanism" to criticize and block NUDEAL "un-Americanisms" (so he opposes FDR's present desire to send Congress home), causes Christian patriots to be thankful. Each added month available to the exposers of the "enemy" increases opportunities and number to be awakened to dire necessity of "electing" to be on Christ's side—thus to justify shortening of time and intensity of punishment ahead. That Divine promise is our only hope and guarantee of eventual overthrow of Anti-Christ forces.

Following up comments re Christian "revolt" against NUDEAL in "Bible Belt" (Dakotas, Nebr., Kans., Iowa, Colo., Ind. and Mich.) as evidenced by vote against FDR on Nov. 5, notwithstanding all attempts to "buy" and "pressure" his re-election, now should those States be punished by withholding Federal funds for "defense" and other projects (such as Army camp slated for Iowa and then diverted to Missouri), let's be thankful that we will thus earlier become accustomed to relying upon ourselves so, when the crash comes, the blow will not hit us so hard as those eating Federal handouts.

That the "controll" will desire to so punish is seen in 11-17-40 press comment re movie star Robt. Montgomery, who to his honor, not only actively supported Willkie, but also criticized quality of current films (NUDEAL and hate-Hitler-to-war propaganda): ". . Then the deluge really hit him. Even the Hollywood press, which throws some kind of stones itself, piled on him while executives (Jews) fulminated and fellow stars said that Bob was risking his career. The stars may be right. Montgomery's double-barrelled excursion into controversial matter has been followed by thunderous silence from Metro-Goldwyn-Mayer on what his forthcoming pictures, if any, will be."

Reminds that THE JEWISH PRESS 11-15-40 gloats under caption: "GEN. JOHNSON APOLOGIZES—Retracts Statement That Jews Seek War . .", referring to Hugh S. Johnson's pre-election address in which he was charged with "implying" that "American Jews were pushing USA into war against Hitler". Bernard Baruch's "hired man" also got a personal reprimand from that Prince of Jewry whom Jewish press calls "Asst. Pres. of USA". Significantly THE JEWISH PRESS 10-25-40 editorially "burned up" over Johnson's speech, prophecying: ". . If Hugh Johnson is forced to eat his column, as he has threatened to do in case Pres. Roosevelt is re-elected, we can assure him a good case of indigestion. We (the Jews) got sick merely from reading the trash."

Quit Painting Faces

And if women and girls would quit painting their faces and fingernails like savages, their minds would also be rid of that inane artificality so overwhelmingly distasteful to intelligent men. At the same time their allurement would be increased by 50%.—The Belfry.

Somewhat Forgetfull

"I see you got here after all," the host remarked to an absent-minded friend.

"Bless me, so I did," said the man. "I meant to forget to come but I forgot to forget to remember."

Emphasizes Age Decadence

And this matter of cigarette smoking by women and girls only emphasizes the decadence of the age of today. Women smoke like small boys, anyway.—The Belfry.

"De ARYAN COMMENTS"

(From Radio Talk, Wednesday 8:15 pm KGB)

lowed to cry down the normal wish of the American people for peace. What is their purpose? They cannot be real Americans, because real Americans think of their own country first. We can't have a permanent peace without justice. That was the trouble with the Versailles treaty. It was not just. Power politics in Europe is not a basis of justice. It's a basis of imperialism which is the cause of all their troubles."

And that is exactly the reason why I left the old world and took a steamer in Bombay to cross three oceans and land in Baltimore 28 years ago. Power politics and imperialism places itself above God and the result is misery and war and more wars. They cannot escape the consequences of violating the Will of God. Peace, liberty, happiness, prosperity can be had only in compliance with Truth, in compliance with the Golden Rule, in compliance with the Ten Commandments. All the armed mights, raised to a billion airplanes, will not insure the rule of those who defy the LAW of God. One cannot conquer evil with evil but only by eliminating it and supplanting good in its stead. And for this very reason William Cardinal O'Connell; archbishop of Boston said: "I can't understand why the blockade can't be lifted in such a way that Mr. Hoover could get food to those starving people."

Cruelty for Profit

Collier's Magazine for Dec. 14 contains an editorial dealing with the cruelties employed by the moving picture producers of Hollywood in the making of Westerns. Collier's joins in with William Randolph Hearst's crusade in his daily newspaper column against cruelty to animals specially horses. The editors of Collier's add: "There is a streak of degeneracy in anybody who will abuse any poor, dumb animal in any manner. There is a streak of the unprintable in anybody who will abuse an animal for profit."

Our Bill of Rights

As I said before, I came to America because nowhere else could I find a country and a government where I could live according to the dictates of my conscience and the precepts of my religion in daily life. And because I know that it is futile to attempt to gain wealth, or power or knowledge through violation of divine LAW I am opposed to cruelty to animals in vivi-section or the making of moving pictures. I am opposed to exploitation of human beings as much as I am against abusing dumb animals. And so life has set a tremendous task before me: To stand on my own, produce through my own efforts in the exchange of useful service, whatever I need for my living and of those who depend upon me for support. And in so doing I am learning to comply with the Law of God, not ignore it, not oppose it, not yield to high pressure of crooks and fools who singly or in organizations imagine that they are superior to Providence which rules not only this earth but infinitude itself.

One can easily understand how important is to me the Bill of Rights as set down in our constitution. In fact it is my own constitution. I am constituted that way. Take these rights away from me and life is not worth living.

When people band themselves together for mutual protection for the common good I am always with them. But I am wide awake lest under the guise of mutual protection some scoundrels and crooks usurp power to exploit those whom they profess to protect. I left the old world and its governments because I learned through bitter experience the sham of their protection. I came to this country determined to make it a free country where our children may have greater opportunities for individual selfunfoldment and selfgovernment which even we have not yet had. I have taken the oath of allegiance to the Bill of Rights in our constitution time and again on various occasions. And one needs not be surprised that I mean business.

Force and Violence

Last Thursday noon I was picketing the pickets in front of the San Diego Hotel. The San Diego County Federated Trades and Labor Council, the local Waiters' and Bartenders' Union, the Cooks' and Waitresses' Local 402, the Building Service Employes' Local 102 and Engineers' Local 526, all of these groups had their pickets parading with banners in front of the Hotel. It was quite a mob. They are demanding a Closed Shop on the grounds that the employees of the Hotel are underpaid. The truth of the matter is the Hotel employees have been earning as much if not more than those at another Hotel up the street which happens to be nominally a Union House. To offset the misleading statements on the banners of the pickets I paraded my own banner showing that the striking local unions themselves were more than abusing their own employees when they force them to picket three hours a day for only $1. They cannot live on that. And those members who have a job are forced to picket for nothing or pay a fine. That is regimentation, that is dictatorship, while the officers of the union draw $30 up a week, the presiding agent says he is getting $125 a week. These are conditions which the public ought to know. But will the union guys permit me to show them up as they propose doing it in the case of their propaganda against the Hotel? The American Federation of Labor got a decision from the Supreme Court of California permitting them to picket any business where the employees refuse to join the union. The court ruled that the right to picket and present grievances in public is so important that no limits can be set. But when I do the very thing the court ruled is legal, but expose the dictatorial tactics and the exploitation of the conscripted pickets of the labor unions themselves who are overworked and underpaid or not paid at all, what do the unions do? Do the members of these unions respect the edict of the high court, do they respect the Bill of Rights under which they themselves operate? I am finding it repeatedly in encounters with the AFL, as well as the CIO, that they use force and violence to overthrow the governing rules whenever it suits their convenience. I have been beaten up on numerous occasions for doing the very things the unions demand the right to do.

Aiding Escape of Prisoner

Last Thursday while the Rotary Club was congregating for its weekly luncheon at the San Diego Hotel I was set upon by a hoodlum, they call them goons, employed to beat up opposition to labor rackets. He hit me in the head, tore up my sign, a picket finished tearing it up and threw it away. I put the fellow under arrest according to section 837 of the Penal Code. He fought me off and started to walk away but I stayed right with him. The remarkable part was I felt no fear whatever even though he kept on hitting me and threatening of dire things to come if I kept on walking with him. He crossed E Street at State and hailed a cruising taxi. I warned the driver that the the fellow was my prisoner but when the goon asked him to take him away from me and not let me get in the taxi, the driver complied. I took his number.

Police Officers Baldwin and Hayes arrived soon after. I got into their car and we soon located the taxi driver whom I placed under arrest for violation of Section 101 of the Penal Code. We took him to the police station where Lieutenant Seibert lodged him in jail. City Prosecutor O'Keefe issued me two warrants. One for assault against John Doe, the unidentified assailant. The other against the taxi driver for helping my prisoner escape. Next morning Municipal Judge Terry sentenced the driver to 45 days in jail and because the man had admitted the fact that he had been warned by me, but said it was his first fare that day and he had not actually realized how serious an offense he was committing, I recommended leniency and the court suspended the sentence during good behavior. That's all. Good night.

Are You A Fifth Columnist?

Origin of the Term

It is nothing in these days of manufactured crises to hear ill-informed speakers contribute to the insane hysteria by inveighing against mysterious people who are called members of the fifth column. As Robert Quillen said in July, everybody "hates the fifth column . ." Then he added: "Alas! we don't agree on what it is, except that everybody thinks that it consists of the peope he abominates." Briefly, the term has become one of opprobrium and is used so indiscriminately and thoughtlessly that its original meaning has been lost in the wild shuffle. Not one person in a thousand could give an intelligent reply if asked the origin of the designating phrase. However, we must go back to the days of the Civil War in Spain. General Mola was asked about the strength of his forces. His reply gave the world the basis for a phrase which has caught its imagination. He said: "I have four columns of soldiers, and a fifth column in Madrid."

Spanish Catholics vs. Atheistic Jews

That we may once and for all time get clearly in mind the meaning of what General Mola said, let us analyze his reply. Cutting right through all the silly nonsense which has been said and written about it, we must remember that General Mola was one of General Francisco Franco's outstanding military strategists. General Franco was then standing up the bolshevistic elements, which were led by men from Moscow and from every country in the world which had a contribution of communistic revolutionaries and anarchists to make to the nondescript military forces opposing the Spanish nationalists. The Red revolutionaries were internationalists whose avowed aim is now—and has been since the days of the Jew, Karl Marx—to set up a world government to be dominated by the political aristocrats of the same race as Karl Marx. Leon Trotzky-Bronstein, Bela Kun-Cohen, Leon Blum and Leslie Hore-Belisha, to cite a few internationally known names. These Red revolutionaries had gone to Spain with the avowed intention of bringing Communism to Spain so that Soviet Russian leaders would have a base in southwestern Europe from which to work, their purpose being to put the bolshevistic squeeze on all of Europe. At the cost of a million lives—civilians and soldiers—Spain, under Franco's inspiring leadership, drove these political marplots from the country. Today many of them are in the Western Hemisphere, preparing a program for taking over North and South America—as they had planned to take over Spain and later all of Europe.

America vs. International Jews

What took place in Spain was simply a preview of what we now see occurring nearly all over the world, including our own beloved country. Briefly put, it is a struggle between Jewish, anti-Christian internationalism, and Christian nationalism. The nature of the world struggle is such, that there will be both internationalists and nationalists living in the same block in every city and town in the United States. Breaking it down still further, sympathizers with the political ideology of internationalism, and those who believe intensely in the political philosophy of American nationalism, may live in the same house as members of the same family. Sit down with the same family Bible. Read the same Gospels carefully. Therein you will find it was foretold that in these days father would be arrayed against son, son against father, mother against daughter, daughter against mother, and neighbor against neighbor. That was the situation in Spain just before the civil war broke out. Through election frauds early in 1936, the Jewish internationalistic elements had taken over the government of that Christian nation—and the closing months of 1940 find political leaders of the same materialistic ideology in the saddle in England and North America. When conditions in Spain under the usurping Red murderbund became intolerable, civil war broke out. Caught in the territory where the Red "Loyalists" government held control, were hundreds of thousands of Christians who sympathized with General Franco—forced under the political and military control of sadistic, Jewish Bolshevists who had come from the ends of the earth to do their butchering in a country in which they were aliens. Of course in every country there are natives whose propensity for evil is greater than their tendency to do good works, and in Spain such elements naturally went over to the forces which had come to put over the Red revolution.

Fifth Column Liberators

When General Mola said he had a fifth column, he coined a phrase destined to become a classic. Note that General Mola's fifth column comprised the Christians—Spanish patriots—people who loved their country, but who were trapped inside the lines of the forces of the usurping Red government. That phrase has since swept over the earth, capturing the imagination of friend and foe alike. To Jews, soul-sick liberals, and those who naturally gravitate toward the political idiocy of Communism, the designation was one to be seized upon eagerly. They publicized it as a term of opprobrium, building up the idea that to be a sympathizer with General Franco's Christian nationalists, was disgraceful. Naturally the Reds hated these sympathizers in their territory. They hunted them down, hauled them out and executed them by the thousand—those hated Christians who belonged to Franco's "fifth column"! It must be perfectly clear, therefore, that anyone in the United States of America who believes that Jesus Christ is a greater teacher than Karl Marx, belongs to what the Jews and their fellow travelers have been designating as the "fifth column".

Social Justice recently ran as a headline in a full page advertisement the following, which is self-explanatory:

LET US BE "FIFTH COLUMN" AMERICANS

If Christian Americans understand thoroughly the origin and true meaning of the term, and if it is used correctly, to be called a member of the fifth column is honorable mention.

Breaking Matrimonial Chains

A small group of San Diego's intelligentsia class is following the course of a divorce suit, Genevieve de Aryan vs. C. Leon de Aryan, with great interest. The legal grounds of the suit are marital desertion. He lives in the same house for the sake of providing a home for the children, but the parents have been strangers to each other for years. The point of interest in the suit is whether two people who once made a mistake of an unsuitable marriage, in point of compatibility, aims of life, method of procedure, ideas of a home and individual temperaments, he a stubborn Greek who never gives up one inch of ground, she a red headed Irish-English offshoot who proves the adage about red-heads—do they have to go to court and besmirch each other with sordid tales or can they simply take the civilized path of privately deciding their future course to safeguard their own interests and that of their children—while freeing themselves from the matrimonial chains that bind them together like cat and dog in a gunny sack.

Court Withholds Decree As Children Involved

C. Leon de Aryan, publisher of a weekly newspaper, lived apart from her in the same house, Mrs. Genevieve de Aryan testified, as she sought an interlocutory decree of divorce in Superior Judge L. N. Turrentine's court. The judge did not grant the decree, but referred the case to conciliation court because two children are involved. Starting with about July 1, 1936, de Aryan lived separate and apart from her, Mrs. de Aryan testified.

de Aryan was not present in court and the matter was presented to Turrentine as a default divorce. The couple, according to the complaint, was married in Los Angeles, May 31, 1924. She gave his age as 54.
